

The Academy of Excellence in Music

www.axmusic.co.uk

Equal Opportunities Statement

This information is intended only as a statement of AXMusic's Policy. It does not form part of any individual contracts of employment, client or otherwise have any contractual or legal effect.

AXMusic is an equal opportunities employer or client based trainer which means that AXMusic is committed to a policy of treating all its employees, clients and job applicants equally.

AXMusic does not discriminate against any employee, clients or job applicant on grounds of (including, but not limited to) their race or colour, nationality, national or ethnic origin, sex, marital status, religion, age, sexual orientation or disability.

Where complaints of unlawful discrimination are made, AXMusic will investigate these and take the appropriate steps in light of such investigation, in accordance with our Equal Opportunities Policy.

The Policy applies to all employees, contractors and workers, employed or engaged by the AXMusic

AXMusic shall have prime responsibility for implementing and monitoring the Policy and any queries relating to equal opportunities issues should be referred to the directors.

All employees are personally responsible for applying the AXMusic's Policy and for not discriminating against another client, employee or potential employee or clients.

AXMusic is a registered company (Cic)

Quality comes from a synergy of commitment, experience and attention.

Company number 6569912

All contents is a copyright of AXMusic

Board of Directors

Name	Signature	Date
Rolf Brown
Clark Ellis
Anne Cleaton
Phillip Harris
Viv Lock
Tony Phillips
Mark Anderton

Date of Review: November 2011